Notwithstanding the previous sentence, Shared Discovery produced in the MDL after the Fact or Expert Discovery Cutoffs in the States' Case, as relevant, may not be used by any Party in the States' Case, unless (1) the Shared Discovery is produced in the States Case within 14 days of its receipt in the MDL, notwithstanding the close of fact or expert discovery in the States' Case; and (2) the Shared Discovery is used in the States' Case only for impeachment purposes at trial and may not be admitted into evidence or used in any dispositive motion, pleading, or expert report.

f. Google shall notify Virginia Plaintiffs at least twenty-four (24) hours in advance of serving an expert report in the States' Case or the MDL if Google serves such report before the due date in the States' Case or MDL.

3. Fact Depositions Taken During Coordinated Discovery Period. During the Coordinated Discovery Period, the following provisions shall apply to depositions of fact witnesses:

a. The Parties in the Coordinated Cases shall serve any Deposition Notice on all Parties in the Coordinated Cases and on the Virginia Plaintiffs.³ No Party may Notice a deposition in a Coordinated Case in which it is not a plaintiff or a defendant. If a deposition has been Noticed in one of the Coordinated Cases, a Party in the other Coordinated Case may Cross Notice the deposition in the other Coordinated Case, or, as permitted by paragraphs 4 and 5, examine the witness without a Cross Notice, provided that the Fact Discovery Cutoff in that Party's Coordinated Case has not expired.

b. Notwithstanding the Protective Orders, the Virginia Plaintiffs and a Party in any Coordinated Case may attend a deposition regardless whether the Fact Discovery Cutoff in that Party's Coordinated Case has expired.

c. No Party shall send a Deposition Notice for a deposition to be held fewer than fourteen (14) days after the date on which the Deposition Notice is sent.

d. If a Non-Noticing Party wishes to Cross Notice a deposition, it must do so within seven (7) business days of receiving the Deposition Notice for that deposition. A

³ For purposes of paragraphs 3, 4, and 5: (i) State Plaintiffs collectively will be considered a "Noticing Party" or a "Non-Noticing Party," and the State of Texas shall act on behalf of all State Plaintiffs. (ii) MDL Plaintiffs collectively will be considered a "Noticing Party" or a "Non-Noticing Party," and the Discovery Steering Committee in the MDL shall act on behalf of all MDL Plaintiffs.

Non-Noticing Party may not Cross Notice a deposition if doing so would cause that Non-Noticing Party to exceed a Deposition Limit.

e. If a Non-Noticing Party Cross Notices the deposition within seven (7) business days of receiving the Deposition Notice, the deposition will count against any Deposition Limit applicable to that Non-Noticing Party (unless the deposition does not take place). The deposition will also count against any Deposition Limit applicable to the Noticing Party (unless the deposition does not take place). For the avoidance of doubt, if a Party withdraws a previously-served Notice or Cross Notice at least forty-eight (48) hours before the deposition takes place, then that deposition will not count against any Deposition Limit applicable to that Party. Additionally, when a Non-Noticing Party examines a witness without a Cross Notice, pursuant to paragraphs 4 and 5, that examination will not count against any Deposition Limit applicable to that Party.

f. MDL Plaintiffs and State Plaintiffs cannot compel a witness appearing at a Google Deposition or a Party Deposition taken during the Coordinated Discovery Period, including a deposition that occurred in the Virginia Case, to sit for a second deposition in any Coordinated Case (including a second Rule 30(b)(6) deposition of the same entity on the same or substantially similar topics), absent good cause shown to the Court in the Coordinated Case for which the subsequent deposition of the witness is noticed.

Google cannot compel by Notice or Cross Notice a witness appearing at a Party Deposition or Non-Party Deposition taken during the Coordinated Discovery Period, including a deposition that occurred in the Virginia Case, to sit for a second deposition in any Coordinated Case (including a second Rule 30(b)(6) deposition of the same entity on the same or substantially similar topics), absent good cause shown to the Court in the Coordinated Case for which the subsequent deposition of the witness is noticed.

h. Subject to the Protective Orders, Transcripts and exhibits from depositions taken in a Coordinated Case during the Coordinated Discovery Period may be used in any Coordinated Case for any purpose permissible under the Federal Rules of Evidence and the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure (including for purposes of impeachment at trial).

i. Notwithstanding any other provisions of this Order, while the NBA Stay is in effect, (i) Meta may not Notice or Cross Notice a deposition, and Meta may not question a witness at a Google Deposition, a Party Deposition, or a Non-Party Deposition (except at a Non-Party Deposition of a current or former Meta employee); (ii) MDL Plaintiffs may not Cross Notice a deposition of a current or former Meta employee; and (iii) no Transcripts and exhibits from depositions of current and/or former Meta employees may be disclosed to or used by MDL Plaintiffs.

b. If two Parties (one of which is Google) Notice or Cross Notice a Non-Party Deposition, and no other Party Cross Notices the deposition, then Google will have three (3) hours on the record to examine the witness, the other Party that Noticed or Cross Noticed the deposition will have three (3) hours on the record to examine the witness, and any Non-Noticing Party or Parties in any Coordinated Case will collectively have one (1) hour on the record to examine the witness. If no Non-Noticing Party requests to examine the witness, the Noticing Party will have three and one-half (3.5) hours on the record to examine the witness, and Google will have three and one-half (3.5) hours on the record to examine the witness.

c. If State Plaintiffs and MDL Plaintiffs Notice or Cross Notice a Non-Party Deposition, and no other Party Cross Notices the deposition, then each of the Parties that Noticed or Cross Noticed the deposition will have three (3) hours on the record to examine the witness, and Google will have one (1) hour on the record to examine the witness.
